Dated: 24. 4. 2012.

To

All Heads of Telecom Circles / Metro Telephones Districts,
Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited.

Subject: Extension of recovery scheme for realization of outstanding telephones dues against closed connections of Private Customers of Basic telephones, WLL, Telex, Private Wires/Circuits and CMTS (Post paid) under project "Kuber", through (i) Recovery Agents/Agencies on commission basis & (ii) In-house teams by grant of incentive; after expiry of the existing scheme on 31.3.2012 - regarding.

Kind reference is invited to this office letter No: 2-1/2009-BSNL/TR [CFA] dated 5.9.2011 regarding extension of recovery scheme up to 31-03-2012, for collection of outstanding Telecom revenue up to 3 years old against closed connections of Private Customers of Basic telephones, WLL, Telex, Private Wires/Circuits and CMTS (Post paid).

On the recommendations of various Circles, a proposal was submitted to the Competent Authority for extension of the existing scheme for further one year. The Competent Authority has approved extension of the said recovery scheme, which expired on 31.3.2012, with some modifications, as follows:

1. The scheme introduced w.e.f. 1.9.2011 to 31.3.2012 is extended further for one year w.e.f. 1.4.2012 to 31.3.2013 for all Circles except Karnataka Circle with the existing features, briefly re-iterated as follows:

- (a) over three month to three year old outstanding dues be recovered through the Recovery agents on commission basis as per guidelines available in Circular No. 2-11/2009-BSNL/TR dated 09.07.2009 and over three year old outstanding dues be recovered through In-house teams by grant of Incentive as per rates communicated vide circular No. 2-1/2009-BSNL/TR [CFA] dated 5.9.2011.
- (b) Circles are authorized to get the over three month up to three year old outstanding dues also recovered through In-house teams by grant of Incentive as per rates communicated vide circular No. 2-1/2009-BSNL/TR[CFA] dated 5.9.2011, instead of allocating the said outstanding to Recovery Agents/Agencies.
- (c) However, the SSAs who desire to liquidate the outstanding through Pvt. Recovery Agents and Agencies based on their past performance instead of allocating the outstanding amount up to three year old period to In-House Teams, are also authorized to continue to do so and intimate to Corporate office regarding the same.
- (d) The outstanding dues allocated to In-house teams shall not be allocated to Recovery Agents and vice versa.

2. In respect of Karnataka Circle, the scheme is extended further for one year from 1.4.2012 to 31.3.2013 with further modifications as recommended by Karnataka Circle and approved by the Competent Authority as follows:

- (a) over three month to three year old outstanding dues be recovered through the Recovery agents on commission basis as per guidelines available in Circular No. 2-11/2009-BSNL/TR dated 09.07.2009.
- (b) the outstanding dues over three year old also be allocated by the Karnataka Circle to the Private Recovery Agents instead of to In-house teams for effecting recovery on commission basis as per guidelines available in Circular No. 2-11/2009-BSNL/TR dated 09.07.2009.
- (c) Karnataka Circle shall, however, ensure that the outstanding amount allocated for recovery to Private Recovery Agents is not allocated to the In-house teams.

Contd./-

3. The rate of commission to the recovery agents and incentive to staff payable for effecting recovery shall be as follows:
