Sub: Appeal to withdraw Country-wide Lunch hour demonstration on 08.01.2026.

Ref: (1) Unions and Associations of BSNL/CHQ/2026/1 dated 07.01.2026.
(2) Unions and Associations of BSNL/CHQ/2025/6 dated 30.12.2025

Sir,

I am directed to refer your letter under reference intimating thereby Country-wide Lunch hour demonstration on 08.01.2026.

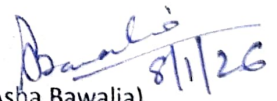

2.. At this point of time, when BSNL has received revival packages from Government of India, it is our foremost responsibility to single mindedly carry out all the tasks allotted to us and contribute toward the nation building.

3. In recent times, BSNL has embarked on a transformative journey, striving to reclaim its position as a leading telecom service provider in India. This path has been marked by significant milestones, including the rollout of indigenous 4G services and a renewed focus on customer satisfaction.

4. Since, BSNL is passing through a challenging phase, as such any agitational activities at this juncture will not be in the interest of BSNL. It is imperative for all employees to focus on the improvement of productivity and financial condition of the company. Moreover we are in the last quarter of the current Financial Year. Any disruption in business activities will affect the performance of the company which is also linked with the welfare of the employees.

5. In view of above, it is appealed to withdraw the Country-wide Lunch hour demonstration on 08.01.2026 and make all out efforts for the financial growth of the company.

This is issued with approval of competent authority.
