In view of the above, the Rajasthan Circle may kindly take necessary action to ensure that the superannuation pension cases are submitted to the CCA office strictly in compliance with the timelines prescribed under the CCS (Pension) Rules, 2021. The cases referred to in the enclosed letter may be immediately submitted to DoT for settlement of these pending pension cases.

This office, vide letter No. BSNLCO-COMN/17(11)/13/2023-ESTT FIN dated 29.08.2024, had also communicated the "Zero Pendency Mission on Pension" to all Circles, enclosing DoT letter No. 7-1/2022/Pension Policy/TA-1 dated 22.08.2024, with directions that the instructions contained therein be strictly adhered to. It was also made mandatory for Circles to attend meetings convened by the concerned CCA, along with directions to take strict action against erring officials/officers where delays are found after examination.

Earlier, this office, vide letters No. BSNLCO-COMN/12(19)/9/2024-ESTT FIN dated 11.08.2025 and 02.09.2025, enclosing DoT letter No. RDOT/8-2/CCARJ/Pension/25-26/01 dated 21.07.2025 and RDOT/8-2/CCARJ/Pension/25-26/02 dated 14.08.2025, respectively, had reported certain instances of delay. In this regard, the instructions pertaining to the Zero Pendency Mission were also reiterated, and the Circle was directed to resolve such cases without delay.

Further, it was also directed that an immediate action may be initiated to ascertain the reasons for the delay and strict action should be taken against the officials/officers found responsible for the lapse. It was also requested that adequate efforts must be made to prevent such lapses in the future by closely monitoring all individual retirement cases on a regular basis.

Subject: Zero Pendency Mission on pension cases-reg

While reviewing the monthly reports received on the subject it has been observed that there are still cases of delayed payment of pensionary benefits to the retiring employees/pensioners. In some cases, the pension papers are not received from the concerned BSNL units for months due to one reason or another.

2. CCS (Pension) Rules, 2021 provide that where the amount of pension and gratuity cannot be determined for reasons other than the departmental or judicial proceedings, provisional pension and provisional gratuity is required to be sanctioned in accordance with Rule 62 of CCS (Pension) Rules, 2021. However, in certain pending pension cases, this has not been followed by the concerned Head of offices, which may result in claim of Interest on delayed payment of gratuity and pension in future. Similarly, attention is invited to Rule 8(4) and (5) of CCS (Pension) Rules, 2021 for authorizing provisional pension in cases where departmental or judicial proceedings may be pending. BSNL office of retiring employee must process and submit pension papers as per schedule mentioned under Chapter X of CCS (Pension) Rules, 2021.

3. The Competent Authority has therefore directed that a co-ordination meeting between O/o CCA & BSNL at appropriate level, to be decided by Pr CCA/CCA or Jt CCA (where HoC), be held at all field units to review the pending pension cases as well as the pension cases due in ensuing 3 months. It is requested to issue instructions to all BSNL field units for processing and forwarding the pension cases timely as per schedule and BSNL units may be directed to attend monthly meeting with concerned CCA office to sort out any issues in the submission of complete pension papers to the CCA office.
